THE JOURNAL OF Higher Education

Volume XXXV 1964

Published by
Ohio State University Press

THE JOURNAL OF HIGHER EDUCATION is published to serve as the professional journal of the faculties and administrative officers in the colleges, universities, and professional schools of the United States. The editorial advisers and corresponding editors are representative of many fields in higher education. With their assistance, the editorial staff seeks to bring to its constituency reports of all significant developments, studies, and publications within higher education.
